

THE REWARD OF GRACE

COL Ch. 28 {READ Matt. 19:16-30,20:1-16, Mark 10:17-31, Luke 18:18-30}

1. What spirit did the disciples have which kept them from being wholly free?
COL 390.1

2. Why did Jesus ask the rich young ruler why he had called Him good?
COL 390.3

3. What must be the spring of your every action? COL 391.1

4. What is the same condition required of Adam that is also required for us to have eternal life? COL 391.2

5. What is the lover of self? COL 392.1

6. What did Jesus point out to the rich young ruler, which let him know that he was out of harmony with the principles of heaven? COL 392

7. Instead of cherishing idols, what did Jesus desire this rich young ruler to do?
COL 392.2

8. What are we to do that the disciples did if we want to meet the qualifications for eternal life? COL 393.1

9. What question did Peter ask Jesus which revealed a wrong spirit? COL 396.1

10. Why did Jesus teach in parables? Psalm 78.2, Matthew 13:34-35, COL 20.3

11. What parable was shared with the disciples that illustrate the principles of the gospel? COL 396.3

12. Who does the householder represent?

13. Who do the laborers represent?

14. What does the vineyard represent?

15. What does the day represent?

16. Who does the early morning workers represent? COL 399.5, 400.1

17. The way the householder dealt with the workers in the vineyard represents what? COL 396.5

18. What makes our labor valuable to God? COL 397.3

19. What does this parable not excuse? COL 399.1

20. What else does this parable show about those called to work in His vineyard? COL 399.4

21. In dealing with the workers, what is more offensive to God? COL 400.1

22. This _____ is a _____ to all _____, however long _____, however _____, that without _____ to their _____, without _____ before God, _____ are _____. COL 402.2

23. How are we recognized as laborers together with God? 402.4

24. What should we always remember so we will not be disappointed in our reward? COL 404.2